

Are solar brackets exported to the United States

Overview

In the latest fiscal year, global exports of solar roof brackets reached approximately 1.2 million metric tons, valued at around USD 3 billion. Export volumes have grown at a CAGR of 6-8%, driven by expanding international demand and the proliferation of large-scale projects. Where are solar brackets exported to the United States?

Understanding the destinations for solar brackets exported to the United States reveals significant insights into global trade dynamics. Solar brackets are primarily sent to large-scale solar farms, catering to energy infrastructure needs. Solar photovoltaic (PV) manufacturing involves making a wide variety of products and materials across several manufacturing steps, often done in different locations. In the United States, there are two leading types of solar panels: cadmium telluride (CdTe) and crystalline silicon (c-Si). This report includes summary data for the photovoltaic industry from annual and monthly respondents.
