Negative electricity prices are putting pressure on the PPA business model, but smart combinations with storage and co-location can offer a way forward. Power purchase agreements (PPAs) are considered a key financing tool for the market-driven expansion of photovoltaics. That's creating a unique new opportunity for investors amid the emerging demand for battery storage, which provides balance to electricity markets. In this edition of Smart Energy's Power Playbook column, Yusuf Latief explores the energy storage financing climate in Europe, looking into the different. Here, we recognize the top 10 energy storage companies in Europe that are at the forefront of this dynamic and essential industry. Scatec ASA is a renewable energy Independent Power Producer (IPP) specializing in solar, wind, and hydro power plants, as well as storage solutions, across four. Flexibility solutions can adjust demand and supply by allowing excess electricity to be saved in large quantities over different time periods.
